

GO TO SOMERS

FOR THE BEST FRESH KILLED POULTRY.

TURKEYS,
DUCKS,
GEESSE, GUINEAS,
FOWLS,
ROASTING CHICKENS
MUSHROOMS, PEPPERS, CAULI-FLOWERS, TANGARINES, CASABA MELONS, HEAD LETTUCE, CEL-ERY, NEW NUTS, POMEGRAN-ATES, PERSIMMONS, GRAPE FRUIT, TABLE PEARS.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING TO MAKE YOUR DINNER PERFEC-TION.

SOMERS

One of the Most Lasting
and Useful Gifts

Hamilton Watch

BUY IT AT FERGUSON'S

239 Main St., Franklin Square

Headquarters for the Hamilton Watch
Call and Select One Now

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN
TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E.
E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

TO THE PUBLIC:

I wish to notify the public that my office is now ready to receive patients.
J. O. ZIMMERMAN, D. C., Doctor of Chiropractic.
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, from 2-6 p. m. Rooms 210-221, Thayer Bldg.

TURTLE EBONY BLACK EBONY

FOR HER
Toilet Sets and Accessories

FOR HIM
Military Brushes

The finest of brushes in the Brushes.
These articles can be engraved.

THEPLAUT-CADDEN CO.
JEWELERS
The Plaut-Cadden Building
Established 1872

Dr. J. M. KING

DENTIST
May Building
Jan 1st

GEORGE G. GRANT
Undertaker and Embalmer 32 Providence St., Taftville Prompt attention to day or night calls.
Telephone 499. apr 14 MWFW

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN

Dental Surgeon
McDonnell Building - Norwich, Conn.

Trommer's
Evergreen Beer
REAL GERMAN LAGER is on draught at
H. JACKEL & CO.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Dec. 8, 1916.

VARIOUS MATTERS

High tides will prevail today.

The moon falls tomorrow morning at 7.44.

Light vehicle lamps at 4.45 o'clock this evening.

Nice looking wreaths and Christmas trees were displayed for sale Thursday.

Wednesday was the last day for justices of the peace to take the oath of office.

Cider mills about the town have closed for the season after a rather poor output.

Local circle of King's Daughters will have a Xmas sale today from 10 to 5 in Thayer building—adv.

In the list of contributions for Armenian-Syrian relief, the Abington Congregational church is credited with $57.

About 75 per cent. of the towns of the state have filed their reports of school enrollment with the comptroller.

Across the Rhode Island border Roy Wright of Carolina has trapped 14 skunks and several muskrats thus far this season.

The catechism class for public school children of St. Patrick's parish will be resumed in the basement chapel Saturday morning.

The Tolland county farm bureau has rented an office in the Prescott block, Rockville, for the county agent, John H. Glendon.

Col. William H. Hall of Willington will be holding a conference with Comptroller Morris C. Webster this week at the capital.

Thursday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church Rev. J. H. Broderick will deliver a sermon on "The Fruit of the Spirit."

This week at Niantic, Sergt. Henry Sankus has concluded his duties at the state camp and has returned to his station at Fisher's Island.

In the main, this has been a favorable season for the motorists, so that some extra handsome blooms for holiday decorating may be looked for.

A Washington letter mentions that Congressman Richard P. Freeman has moved his headquarters from the Woodward apartments to Congress hall.

Favorable weather yesterday brought many shoppers to town and nearly every one departing by trolley or train had what looked very much like Christmas parcels.

Hear Marshall Darrach recite "The Merchant of Venice" at Trinity Methodist church tonight at 8. Y. M. C. A. audience. Single admission 50c, course of two 75c—adv.

A former Montville school principal, James McCabe, of Wallingford, is promoter of a community Christmas tree there, around which Christmas carols will be sung Christmas eve.

The November sunshine has shown a percentage of 56. Overcast skies prevailed on what is a national day, were partly overcast, and nine entirely clear. The monthly relative humidity was 70 per cent.

The Waterbury American says: Rev.
W. E. Keefe of Stamford, well known in this city, when he is a native, has been reappointed state lecturer for the Knights of Columbus for the district of Connecticut.

Governor Marcus H. Holcomb and Secretary Charles D. Burges have signed the election certificates of the representatives in congress from Connecticut, including Richard P.
Freeman.

Mr. D. T. Clifford will open classes Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, from 2-6 p. m. Rooms 210-221, Thayer Bldg.

The Brattleboro, Vt., Reformer in the account of the state together meeting of the Central Vermont railroad employees Sunday at the Crocker house, New London, mentions H. J. Gibbs of Yantic as a member of the arrangements committee.

At Manchester Wednesday, Charles W. Loomis, well digger, was ground to death in his artesian well digging machine while on duty on Congress street, when his sleeve caught in the revolving pulley. The dead man was born in Hebron 45 years ago.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. T. Uley presided at the meeting of Comfort circle of the King's Daughters in house with Mrs. William H. Baker, Phillips avenue, Laurel Hill. Eight members were present and considerable sewing was done during the afternoon.

The tax collector's office will be open tonight and tomorrow night until eight o'clock, for the purpose of collecting the unpaid personal taxes.
After Saturday the office will be closed.
The list will be made out and turned over to the prosecuting attorney as the law directs—adv.

A teachers' institute is to be held at the Nathan Hale school, New London, Saturday morning with address by Henry Houston of New Haven on "Familiarity with the Bible," P. Holman, New Bedford, on "Physical Training," and W. Holmes, Waterbury, on "Problem Reading."

Throughout this month Mars sets far toward the south, only an hour after sunset. It is therefore in a very unfavorable position for satisfactory observation. Dec. 22 Mercury passes to the east of this planet, and the two may be seen in the same field in a small telescope.

Members of the Woman's Relief corps about the state are arranging to donate to the Soldiers' home at Norfolk story books or any modern literature. The books should be sent to the corps for the men's use, but these have been read and re-read until any addition will be welcomed.

The three members of the state board of examiners of barbers have received $3,930.97, which included salaries of $5 a day for their services, during the past year, according to their report to the governor. William Cratty of Rockville, chairman of the board, received $1,560.23.

Sportsmen who have been out at Sawbrook Point daily for wild ducks met with little success in the past week. Very few have come in close to the shore, although there are plenty outside, but it is difficult to get them from the rough waters of the sound, after bringing them down.

The autumn meeting of the Connecticut Valley Brown Alumnæ club of nearby alumnæ is to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George B. Aitken, No.
Gunn square, Springfield, Mass.
Officers of honor will be Miss Lida Shaw Kings of the women's college at Brown university.

PERSONALS

Charles Tingley of Norwich was a business caller in Mystic Tuesday.

Emery Card of Norwich has been calling on North Stonington friends.

Mrs. Charles Haskell of Preston is visiting her sister in Pittsfield, Mass.

E. J. Bennett of Lebanon was the guest of friends in Noank this week.

Mrs. Sidney S. Chappell of Norwich has returned from a brief visit in Saybrook.

Miss Kate B. Colver of the navy yard has returned from a visit to Middleton.

Mrs. John Comstock and Miss Lillian Brookway of Hadley have been in Norwich, guests of Mrs. John Mitchell.

Miss Carolyn Nichols and Miss Louise S. Nichols of Wethersfield avenue, Hartford, have arrived in Norwich for a few weeks.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

Teachers held meeting after school
session on Thursday.

Supervisor of Schools O. E. Lowell
and Inspector H. O. Clough visited the Poquetanuck schools on Thursday afternoon.

NORWICH BULLETIN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1916

Plaintiff Completes His Testimony

John F. Craney on Stand Until Noon Thursday—Willard A.
Church Identified Letters and Postcards in Defendant's Handwriting—Case Goes Over Until Next Tuesday.

Following the testimony of Willard A.
Church in the case of John F. Craney vs. John Donovan, the superior court went out for the day and the case was continued until next Tuesday. Mr. Church completed his testimony and was cross examined, the cross examination being completed at 4.15, at which time court was adjournd, as it was announced to the court that the next witness testimony would be too lengthy to complete Thursday.

When court came in on Thursday morning John F. Craney the plaintiff in the case, which is a $20,000 damage action for slander, took his place on the witness stand and completed his story. He was examined by Lawyer Douglas as to letters and also as to his relations with Mr. Donovan.
Craney was then cross examined by Judge J. H. Barnes, who is a lawyer in the case. Mr. Craney left the stand about noon and returned to his home.

When Catherine Charon of Woonsocket, R. I. was called to the stand she testified as to two letters in the case, part of which had been cut out.
Those were not written by Mr. Donovan, third letter in the case was not read.

Many letters and cards were identified by Willard A. Church when he was called to the stand. These letters and cards he had received and he said they were in the handwriting of Mr.
Donovan. The contents of the letters and cards had reference to Mr. Craney and Mrs. Church. Some of the letters were signed May, and others were signed John F. Craney.

Mr. Church said he had been in the grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the day and the case was continued until Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

Mr. Church resumed the stand when
court came in for the afternoon session. After his direct testimony he
was cross examined by Judge Barnes
and left the stand at 4.15 o'clock.
The case was then adjourned for the
day and the case was continued until
Tuesday of next week.

Mr. Church said he had been in the
grocery business and had been employed by Mr. Donovan in the street
department.

LOCAL BANK MEN

ATTEND HARTFORD MEETING

Frank L. Woodard Retires as State President—Succeeded by S. Fred Strong, of New Haven—Chas. B.
Chapman Elected Vice President.

The meeting of the Connecticut Savings Bank Association, held on Thursday at the Hartford club, was attended by about sixty representatives of state banks, including from Norwich, President John L. Averill
and Charles B. Chapman, treasurer, of the Chelsea Savings Bank, Charles R. Butts, assistant secretary and treasurer of the Norwich Savings Society, and President Francis J. Leavens and Secretary and Treasurer Frank L. Woodard of the Dime Savings Bank, Mr. Woodard being the retiring president of the state association.

The bankers heard a number of interesting speakers and had a profitable and thoroughly enjoyable meeting.
The new president elected is S. Fred Strong, of New Haven, a bank man of prominence, who has a number of friends in Norwich. Charles B. Chapman, of the Chelsea Bank, was elected a vice president of the association.

The meeting of the Connecticut
Savings Bank Association, held on Thursday at the Hartford club, was attended by about sixty representatives of state banks, including from Norwich, President John L. Averill
and Charles B. Chapman, treasurer,
of the Chelsea Savings Bank, Charles
R. Butts, assistant secretary and treasurer of the Norwich Savings Society, and President Francis J. Leav-
ens and Secretary and Treasurer
Frank L. Woodard of the Dime Savings Bank, Mr. Woodard being the retiring president of the state association.

The bankers heard a number of interesting speakers and had a profitable and thoroughly enjoyable meeting.
The new president elected is S. Fred
Strong, of New Haven, a bank man
of prominence, who has a number of friends